

SOUTHEAST SECTION 99s - CHAPTER REVITALIZATION

FUND RAISE	INCREASE MEMBERSHIP	PROMOTE CHAPTER	HAVE FUN (FLYING ACTIVITIES)	FUN EDUCATION ACTIVITY
Pilot proficiency class /WINGS classes - charge for attendance (Goldcoast)	Presence at a flying event	Participate in an airport open house	Promote flying activities as gaining flight proficiency. (Goldcoast)	Visit ATC, National Weather Service, etc. (Georgia)
Pasta Night - Leslie Ingham	"Steal" members who have moved into the area from other chapters	Write a newspaper story and submit it to the local newspaper. The article can be about a member, chapter activity, a Pilots-n-Paws, Operation PROP, etc. (Carolinas)	Treasure Hunt, scavenger hunt, poker run, pennies a pound, etc.	"How's your AIM?" Discuss one section or paragraph of AIM at the meeting to stimulate lively and educational discussions. (Paradise Coast)
Host a Section Meeting	Look at who is not showing up at your meetings. Divide them among the board members and make a personal phone call inviting them to the meeting and telling them what is happening in the Chapter (Kitty Hawk)	Give a talk at a school. Discuss careers, Amelia Earhart; do a famous aviatrix skit, etc. (First Coast)	"Young Eagles: type flying event for breast cancer awareness for cancer survivors.	Educational Sessions: "Chili-n-Charts"; "Appetisers-n-Airspace"; "Fajitas-n-FAR's". (Kitty Hawk)
Selling jackets, key rings, license plates, etc. with 99s logo (Judy Hall/Goldcoast)	Obtain free 99s brochures from International. Post the brochures at the airport or local flying clubs. (Goldcoast)	Participate with International Friends. Interest a female non-pilot in flying. (Mississippi)	Sponsor a group sea plane rating.	Paper airplane contests to improve aerodynamics understanding (Alabama)
Chapter cook book (New Orleans)	Develop a relationship with a flight school employee who will call you when a female starts flying lessons. Keep 99s applications at the flight school)	Promote your activities to people outside of the aviation community. "Toot your own horn". (New Orleans)		Girl Scout Project: Use 8 stations to set up a merit badge or activity badge for the girls. Charge $10/girl and $5/adult. Also a fund raising activity. (Tennessee)
Silent Auctions/Regular Auctions (Goldcoast)	Saturday fly-in meetings. (Goldcoast)	Award a scholarship to a female and invite her into the chapter. It is hard to say no when someone has just handed you money. (Paradise Coast)
Restaurant meeting with a portion of the profit being returned to the Chapter (Kitty Hawk)	CFI's refer and encourage female students to join the Chapter. (Kitty Hawk)	Get non-pilot females to help paint a compass rose. They may get the aviation bug. (Mississippi)
Establish an Amelia Earhart luncheon in conjunction with local Zonta Chapters. (Alabama).	Connect to a college or University program to interest their female flight students. (Goldcoast)	Have a local fly-in and hold a 99s concession stand. This will work for Chapter promotion, membership and possibly fund raising. (Mississippi)
Include wine in silent auction or as a fee per glass item at events. (Alabama)	Summertime hanger cook-out.	Have an ice cream social or reception for all new pilots in the area.
50/50 raffles.	Encourage members to PPL.
	Place brochures at the local AME's office. (Kitty Hawk)			