October 2011

Governor's Corner See you in Paradise

Be sure to register for SE Section, if you have not already. Dates are this week, October 14-16. Chapter Chairs will have their own "Council Meeting" at 1700 Friday. Also, Bring any items you want to donate to the SE Section Silent Auction. You will have a great time in my Chapter's home base of Fort Myers, FL.

We call it Paradise! For further information and registration see attached registration form with this email.

Don't forget to return checks, stubs and any tickets you sold or have left for the iPad2, to me: Judy Bowser, 2129 Everest Pkwy., Cape Coral, FL 33904. It will help SE Section with its budget. The winner will be announced at the SE Section meeting, Oct 15.

The next raffle will be an aviation quilt that we all participate in. Each Chapter is expected to make 2 squares for the quilt, and Vice Governor, Terry Carbonell will put it together, for us. The squares are to be 12.5 inches square. For further details, contact Terry 239 633 0077 or email her godusty@hotmail.com. We need these squares by the section meeting.

There will be two seminars to attend next weekend. One is "Bahamas Flying" and another is a WINGS program "Technology of Flying" presented by Amy Laboda.

Hope to see you there!

Judy

FL Suncoast Chapter

This chapter is getting busy. During their first meeting of the fall they had a presentation by Laura Gau about the iPad with Foreflight. They are planning a joint Chapter Compass Rose Painting in Sebring, FL, next month.

New Orleans Chapter

The Legend of Pancho Barnes was awarded the 2011 L.A. Area Emmy Award in the Arts & Culture/History category at a ceremony at the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences in North Hollywood, California on Saturday August 6th. Producer and writer Nick T. Spark accepted the award on behalf of the entire production team including director Amanda Pope and station KOCE-TV, PBS SoCal. Also in attendance was associate producer post production supervisor Robbie Adler, and Russ Matthews of the Matthews Foundation. The Los Angeles Area Emmy Awards are given for broadcast achievements produced or solely financed and controlled by the Los Angeles television stations or cable television systems. The Academy of Television Art & Sciences, and the Los Angeles Area Awards Committee, comprised of station program and news directors, determines the awards structure.
