Southeast Section March News Update

2022 International Conference in Charleston

If you are one of the members who elected to roll your registration from Long Beach to Charleston, make certain you have received your updated registration from Anna at AKA Travel. This is especially important if you change your arrival and departure days. She will need to change your hotel reservation.

New!
Scholarship Endowment Fund

The Southeast Section Board is moving forward to establish an endowment fund for the New Horizons Scholarship. This fund will ensure funding for the New Horizons Scholarship in the future. A new Investment Fund Committee is being set up. We are seeking members with investment experience to help manage the fund. Contact Vice-Governor Lois Horne for more information or if you can help.

Southeast Section Bylaws

Revised Section Bylaws

Two housekeeping changes have been made to the bylaws. The SE Section Board recommends the adoption of these changes. They will be voted on at the Spring Section Meeting in Palm Beach. If you will not be at the meeting, please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

The changes are indicated by:

- Insertions are bold underlined.
- ~~Deletions are marked with a red strike-through.~~

Appalachian Aviatrixes Chapter

Congratulations to Megan Armstrong, future SWA pilot

Congratulations to student pilot member, Megan Armstrong. Southwest Airlines accepted Megan into their Destination 225-degree Cadet Pathway. She is heading to CAE in Phonex to complete her flight training. If all goes according to plan, she will be in the right seat of a 737 in five years. Megan is mentored by chapter member Brenda Robinette.
